

WEDNESDAY 10 JULY 2024 – KING'S MILL EDUCATION CENTRE
LECTURE THEATRE 1 – 08:30 – 17:00
RCPCH CPD ACCREDITED

GENERAL PRACTITIONERS AND GP TRAINEES STUDY DAY OBJECTIVES

- To create awareness and generate interest about different types of allergic disorders in children and young people
- To discuss existing guidelines and focus on principles of management of common allergies in primary care
- To impart knowledge about how allergies affect different systems
- To update on some recent advances in management of asthma
- To motivate trainees to consider training options in allergy

08:30 - 09:00	REGISTRATION
09:00 - 09:20	Introduction for the day and topics Dr Anand Srivastava, King's Mill Hospital
09:20 - 10:20	Update on food allergy Prof Robert Boyle, Imperial College London
10:20 - 11:10	Cow's milk allergy versus gastro-oesophageal reflux Dr Amrit Dhesi, Sandwell General Hospital, Birmingham
11:10 - 11:40	TEA AND COFFEE BREAK
11:40 - 12:30	Common GI issues in paediatric allergy - food intolerance vs food allergy Dr Sian Kirkham, Nottingham University Hospitals
12:30 - 13:20	Childhood asthma - a paradigm shift in asthma management Dr Jayesh Bhatt, Nottingham University Hospitals
13:20 - 14:00	LUNCH BREAK
14:00 - 14:50	Management of anaphylaxis - are we overprescribing AAI's? Dr Eleanor Minshall, Sheffield Children's Hospital
14:50 - 15:10	TEA AND COFFEE BREAK
15:10 - 16:00	Recognising and addressing anxiety in children and families with food allergy - are we doing enough? Dr Rebecca Knibb, Aston University Birmingham
16:00 - 16:50	Management of atopic dermatitis Dr Jane Ravenscroft, Nottingham University Hospitals
16:50 - 17:00	Closing remarks Dr Michael Yanney, King's Mill Hospital